WCI names top sales leaders for April in nine Lee and Collier communities

BONITA SPRINGS, Fla. (May 12, 2015) – WCI Communities, the Bonita Springs-based lifestyle community developer and luxury homebuilder, has named the top sales performers of April for its communities throughout Southwest Florida. The top agents include:

- Hampton Park: Andrea Poulton has more than a decade of experience in commercial and residential sales. She previously owned and operated a real estate firm in LaBelle.
- Pelican Preserve: Teresa Brown, a licensed real estate professional with WCI since 2004, joined Pelican Preserve in 2008 to help launch new home sales in the community.
- Shadow Wood Preserve and Porto Romano at Miromar Lakes Beach and Golf Club: David Sanvidge has 20 years of professional sales, operation, finance and management experience. He most recently served as a consultant for a Fort Myers financial group.
- The Colony Golf & Bay Club: Patrick Ruff, a licensed real estate professional, has more than 20 years of experience in real estate sales, development and construction. Ruff formerly served as president of the Naples Pathways Coalition's board of directors.
- Carrara at Talis Park: Shoshana Yeager has worked extensively in the Naples real estate market since 2003, serving as a new home sales expert representing three communities. She most recently worked with a Naples real estate firm.
- Raffia Preserve: Jamie Meisterheim has 15 years of real estate experience in Florida and Texas. She recently earned a Southwest Florida divisional sales award for excellence in customer service and satisfaction.
- Livingston Lakes: Lisa Potts has 26 years of sales experience and joined the Livingston Lakes team earlier this year.
- Artesia Naples: Fred Zuccarelli has more than six years of experience as a top producer in the Naples real estate market, with expertise in both new home and luxury high-rise condominium sales.
