

IDENTITY FRAUD TASK FORCE

BRING A LUNCH & LEARN FOR BUSINESSES AND NONPROFITS

All lectures run from noon to 1 p.m.

Professional Development Center, 615 3rd Ave. S., Naples, FL 34102

Lectures are free. Please bring your own lunch. Register by e-mailing lgalton@comcast.net

July 6
IDENTITY THEFT PREVENTION
Protecting you and your business
Presented by Carrie Kerskie

July 20
DATA BREACH RISKS
Protecting you and your organization from a breach
Presented by Greg Scansy

Aug. 3
LEGAL RESOURCE
Staying on the right side of the law
Presented by Rep. Kathleen Passidomo, Lt. Chad Parker, Patrick Neale, Esq.

Aug. 17
CYBER INSURANCE
Beyond general liability
*Presented by Chris Vernon, Esq.,
Scott Newman, CPCU, Travis A. Hill*

TRAVIS A HILL has been an insurance broker for over 22 years and concentrated his practice in the areas of construction, real estate, financial institutions, manufacturing, and the petroleum industry. He is currently a business insurance agent with BB&T Insurance Services – Oswald Tripp.

CARRIE KERSKIE is the president of Kerskie Group Inc. and director of the Identity Fraud Institute at Hodges University. In 2014 U.S. Rep Mario Diaz-Balart lauded Kerskie in The Congressional Record for her work on identity theft.

PATRICK NEALE practices land use, real estate, zoning, and governmental and administrative law. He has appeared before the Legislature, governor and Cabinet and governmental boards. He is government affairs consultant for the Collier Building Industry Association.

SCOTT NEWMANN is director of business development at Lutgert Insurance. He has been director of risk management for major banks and has served on the Quality Committee for the Risk and Insurance Management Society. Scott currently holds 220 insurance licenses and is also a chartered property and casualty underwriter.

LT. CHAD PARKER supervises the Financial Crimes Bureau at the Collier County Sheriff's Office. Lt. Parker is an adjunct instructor for the Florida Attorney General's Office and holds a master's in Public Administration.

KATHLEEN PASSIDOMO represented District 106 in the Florida House of Representatives for six years. She chaired the Civil Justice Subcommittee and served on the Judiciary, Veteran & Military Affairs, Transportation & Ports, and Banking subcommittees.

GREGORY SCASNYS is the CEO of Cybersecurity Defense Solutions. He is a graduate of Purdue University, a frequent guest expert on cyber security for local television and serves on numerous local boards.

CHRISTOPHER VERNON is a prominent securities and exchange attorney who has been an outspoken advocate for the criminal prosecutions of financial and white collar crimes. He has repeatedly been recognized as a Florida Super Lawyer.